

Gáspárdy Tibor

He was born in 1960 in Sopron, a traditional fine art family. He earned a Master of Science degree in 1984 at the Janus Pannonius University of Pécs, Faculty of Teacher Education. Since 1992 he has been teaching at the Benedek Elek Pedagogical College's visual department. Since 1986, he has been a member of the Management Board of the Sopron Fine Arts Society. In 1994, he was elected as a member of the Painting Association of the Hungarian Artists' Association (Fine Arts Fund). He won the SOTEX special prize in the 1990 Sopron Autumn Festival, the 1995 prize of the Horváth & Lukács Gallery and at the Civitas Fidelissima 75 Exhibition the Soproni Sörgyár Rt prize.

"... Tibor Gáspárdy is an artist who respects tradition in the noblest sense. This approach is not only a feature of the theme but also an artistic toolkit that is consciously enriched with new and new elements. He uses watercolor - a classic technique that requires professional knowledge, concentration and enhanced artistic sensitivity.

Gáspárdy's life is inspired by the magic of nature and colors and lyrical delicacy, recalling the intricate details of landscapes and towns ... "
